This prospectus is not intended to constitute an indication or prediction of the date on which the selling securityholder will exercise the Warrant for ordinary shares, if at all. We are filing the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part in order to fulfill our contractual obligations under the Warrant.

The selling securityholder may, from time to time, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any or all of the ordinary shares being registered or interests in the ordinary shares being registered on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which our ordinary shares are traded or in private transactions. Prices may vary from purchaser to purchaser during the period of distribution. See "Plan of Distribution." We are not selling any securities and will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of our ordinary shares by the selling securityholder under this prospectus. Upon the exercise of the Warrant, however, we will receive the exercise price of the Warrant. The net proceeds received from the sale or other disposition of our ordinary shares by the selling securityholder, if any, is unknown.

We may amend or supplement this prospectus from time to time by filing amendments or supplements as required. You should read the entire prospectus, including the additional information described under the heading "Incorporation by Reference," and any amendments or supplements carefully before you make your investment decision.

It does not contain all of the information that may be important to you and your investment decision. Implications of Being an Emerging Growth Company and a “Foreign Private Issuer”

We qualify as an “emerging growth company” as defined in the JOBS Act. As an “emerging growth company,” we may take advantage of certain exemptions from specified disclosure and other requirements that are otherwise generally applicable to public companies. These exemptions include:

- not being required to comply with the auditor attestation requirements for the assessment of our internal control over financial reporting provided by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002;
- reduced disclosure obligations regarding executive compensation; and
- not being required to hold a nonbinding advisory vote on executive compensation or seek shareholder approval of any golden parachute payments not previously approved.

We may take advantage of these reporting exemptions until we are no longer an “emerging growth company.”

We are also considered a “foreign private issuer” and report under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as amended, the “Exchange Act”) as a non-U.S. company with “foreign private issuer” status. This means that, even after we no longer qualify as an “emerging growth company,” as long as we qualify as a “foreign private issuer” under the Exchange Act, we will be exempt from certain provisions of the Exchange Act that are applicable to U.S. public companies, including:

- the sections of the Exchange Act regulating the solicitation of proxies, consents or authorizations in respect of a security registered under the Exchange Act;
- the sections of the Exchange Act requiring insiders to file public reports of their stock ownership and trading activities and liability for insiders who profit from trades made in a short period of time; and
- the rules under the Exchange Act requiring the filing with the SEC of quarterly reports on Form 10-Q containing unaudited financial and other specified information, or current reports on Form 8-K, upon the occurrence of specified significant events.

We may take advantage of these reporting exemptions until such time that we are no longer a “foreign private issuer.” We could lose our status as a “foreign private issuer” under current SEC rules and regulations if more than 50% of our outstanding voting securities become directly or indirectly held of record by U.S. holders and any one of the following is true: (i) the majority of our directors or executive officers are U.S. citizens or residents; (ii) more than 50% of our assets are located in the United States; or (iii) our business is administered principally in the United States.

We may choose to take advantage of some but not all of these reduced burdens. We have taken advantage of reduced reporting requirements in this prospectus. Accordingly, the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus may be different from the information you receive from our competitors that are public companies, or other public companies in which you have made an investment.

We are also eligible to, and have chosen to, take advantage of certain exemptions from Nasdaq corporate governance requirements for foreign private issuers. Please see the section entitled “Item 16G. Corporate Governance,” incorporated by reference from our Annual Report, as well as any amendments thereto reflected in our subsequent filings with the SEC.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our securities carries a significant degree of risk. Prior to making a decision about investing in our securities, you should carefully consider the specific factors discussed below, together with all of the other information appearing or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation by Reference.” You should also consider the risks, uncertainties and assumptions discussed under “Item 3.D—Risk Factors” of our most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F and reports on Form 6-K we file after the date of this prospectus, that are incorporated herein by reference, as may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the SEC in the future. The occurrence of one or more of the events or circumstances described in these risk factors, alone or in combination with other events or circumstances, may have a material adverse effect on our business, reputation, revenue, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects, in which event the market price of our securities could decline, and you could lose part or all of your investment. Additional risks and uncertainties of which we are not presently aware or that we currently deem immaterial could also affect our business operations and financial condition. Please also carefully read the section in this prospectus titled “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.”

The issuance of ordinary shares upon exercise of the Warrant could dilute your investment.

The Warrant is exercisable for up to 361,011 ordinary shares. Such exercise may give the selling securityholder an opportunity to profit from a rise in the market price of our ordinary shares such that exercise thereof could result in dilution of the equity interests of our shareholders. We have no control over whether the holder will exercise the Warrant. While the Warrant is exercisable at a fixed price of $12.17 per share, we cannot predict the market price of our ordinary shares at any future date, and therefore, cannot predict whether the Warrant will be exercised.

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the 361,011 ordinary shares subject to resale by the selling securityholder in this offering. However, if the Warrant is exercised for cash for the maximum of 361,011 ordinary shares, we will receive proceeds of $4,393,503.87. We currently intend to use such proceeds, if any, for pipeline development, advancement of our clinical programs, general corporate purposes and working capital.

The Warrant provides that in lieu of cash payment of the exercise price, the selling securityholder may elect a nominal value exercise. In the event the Warrant is exercised using the nominal value exercise method, we will receive only the nominal amount per share received by the selling securityholder.

As of the date of this prospectus, the Warrant is exercisable for 43,321 ordinary shares. The Loan Agreement provides for three potential loans. Following the drawdown of each of the three loans, the Warrant will become exercisable for additional amounts of ordinary shares ratably based on the amounts of each of the three loans that are drawn. The Warrant will only become exercisable for the maximum of 361,011 ordinary shares if we have fully drawn each of the loans, among other conditions.

The selling securityholder, which as used herein includes donees, pledgees, transferees or other successors in interest selling ordinary shares received after the date of this prospectus from the selling securityholder as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution or other transfer, may, from time to time, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any or all of their ordinary shares on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the ordinary shares are traded or in private transactions. These dispositions may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market price, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

The selling securityholder may use any one or more of the following methods when disposing of ordinary shares or interests therein:

- one or more underwritten offerings;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the ordinary shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- distributions to the selling securityholder's members, partners or shareholders;

- broker-dealers may agree with the selling securityholder to sell a specified number of such ordinary shares at a stipulated price per ordinary shares;
- a combination of any such methods of sale; and

The selling securityholder may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the ordinary shares owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the ordinary shares, from time to time, under this prospectus, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act, amending the list of selling securityholder to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling securityholder under this prospectus. In connection with the sale of our ordinary shares, the selling securityholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the ordinary shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling securityholder may also sell ordinary shares short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the ordinary shares to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The selling securityholder may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of ordinary shares offered by this prospectus, which ordinary shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The aggregate proceeds to the selling securityholder from the sale of the ordinary shares offered by it will be the purchase price of the ordinary shares less discounts or commissions, if any. The selling securityholder reserves the right to accept and, together with its agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of ordinary shares to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from this offering. We will, however, receive the exercise price upon exercise of the Warrant if the Warrant is exercised in cash.

Underwriters and their controlling persons, dealers, and agents may be entitled, under agreements entered into with us and the selling securityholder, to indemnification against and contribution toward specific civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

To the extent required, the ordinary shares to be sold, the name(s) of the selling securityholder (s), the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealer or underwriter, and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the ordinary shares may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the ordinary shares may not be sold unless it has been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

We have advised the selling securityholder that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, may apply to sales of ordinary shares in the market and to the activities of the selling securityholder and their affiliates. In addition, to the extent applicable, we will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be supplemented or amended from time to time) available to the selling securityholder for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling securityholder may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the ordinary shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

We have agreed to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part until all such securities have been sold under such registration statement or under Rule 144 under the Securities Act or are no longer outstanding, or under other circumstances as described in the Warrant. We have agreed to pay any costs and expenses born from our willful and knowing failure to comply with any provision of the Warrant, as well as all taxes and expenses in connection with the issuance of ordinary shares upon exercise of the Warrant. We have also agreed pay all transfer agent fees required for same-day processing of any notice of exercise and all fees to the Depository Trust Company (or another established clearing corporation performing similar functions) required for same-day electronic delivery of the ordinary shares upon exercise of the Warrant in connection with this offering, other than underwriting fees, discounts, selling commissions, stock transfer taxes, and certain legal expenses. The selling securityholder will pay any other costs and expenses relating to the offering.

The selling securityholder may use this prospectus in connection with resales of ordinary shares. This prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement will identify the selling securityholder, the terms of the securities, and any material relationships between us and the selling securityholder. Unless otherwise set forth in a prospectus supplement, the selling securityholder will receive all the net proceeds from the resale of securities.

The selling securityholder may elect to make an in-kind distribution of the ordinary shares to its members, partners, or shareholders pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part by delivering a prospectus. To the extent that such members, partners, or shareholders are not affiliates of ours, such members, partners, or shareholders would thereby receive freely tradable securities pursuant to the distribution through a registration statement.

SERVICE OF PROCESS AND ENFORCEABILITY OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

We are organized under the laws of Switzerland and our registered office and domicile is located in Zug, Switzerland. Moreover, a number of our directors and executive officers are not residents of the United States, and a substantial portion of the assets of such persons are located outside the U.S. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon us or upon such persons or to enforce against us or them judgments obtained in United States courts, including judgments in actions predicated upon the civil liability provisions of U.S. federal securities laws.

We have been advised by our Swiss counsel, Vischer AG, that there is doubt as to the enforceability in Switzerland of original actions, or in actions for enforcement of judgments of U.S. courts, of civil liabilities to the extent solely predicated upon the federal and state securities laws of the United States. Original actions against persons in Switzerland based solely upon the U.S. federal or state securities laws are governed, among other things, by the principles set forth in the Swiss Federal Act on Private International Law of December 18, 1987, as amended (the "PILA"). The PILA provides that the application of provisions of non-Swiss law by the courts in Switzerland shall be precluded if the result would be incompatible with Swiss public policy (ordre public). Also, mandatory provisions of Swiss law may be applicable regardless of any other law that would otherwise apply.

We have appointed Oculis US, Inc as our agent to receive service of process with respect to any action brought against us in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York under the federal securities laws of the United States or of any state in the United States or any action brought against us in the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the County of New York under the securities laws of the State of New York.

Switzerland and the United States do not, as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, have a treaty providing for reciprocal recognition of and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters. The recognition and enforcement of a judgment of the courts of the United States in Switzerland is governed by the principles set forth in the PILA. This statute provides in principle that a judgment rendered by a non-Swiss court may be enforced in Switzerland only if:

- the non-Swiss court had jurisdiction pursuant to the PILA;
- the judgment of such non-Swiss court has become final and non-appealable;
- the counterparty has been properly served with process according to the law of the state of his/her/its domicile or ordinary residence (if in Switzerland, through judicial aid granted by the Swiss authorities) or the counterparty has unconditionally joined the proceedings;
- the recognition of the foreign judgment is not manifestly contrary to the public policy or the law in Switzerland;
- the proceedings leading to the judgment have respected the principles of a fair trial (as understood in Switzerland) and, in particular, that the counterparty has been granted the right to be heard and the possibility to properly defend his/her/its case; and

- no action between the same parties and on the same subject matter has been commenced or decided first in a Swiss court and no judgment between the same parties and on the same subject matter has been first rendered by a foreign court, which judgment may be recognized in Switzerland.
